

Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University

Dear Friends!

The Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University (Kaliningrad, Russia) is happy to invite you to participate in The 4th International Russian Language, Literature and Culture Competition for the Students, which is to take place in the spring of 2015 (March – May, 2015).

Who may take part?

All those who are currently studying Russian at a university or a vocational training program.

Can elementary students compete?

Yes. The competition covers all levels, from Basic to Advanced.

How long is the Competition?

The Competition will run from March to April and will have two parts: during the first part (March 15 – 25) the participants will compete online, during the second part (May 21 – 22), the winners of the online competition will compete on site at the Baltic Federal University (Kaliningrad, Russia).

You can find more information, download the application form and view the demo tasks at the official website of the Competition <http://ru-olymp.kantiana.ru>.

We are looking forward to seeing you among the participants and winners of the International Russian Language, Literature and Culture Competition!

A. Nevskogo str., 14, Kaliningrad, Russia, 236041

+7 (4012) 595595 (suppl. 3100)

Coordinator of Competition Dr. Tatiana Tsvigun

TTSvigun@kantiana.ru, ruslang@kantiana.ru